RE: MUR 6839

Response provided per instructions for the two listed discrepancies:

Discrepancy Number 1

"Palm Card" makes statements regarding Wooten's bid to be elected in Arizona's Congressional District 2. It does not have a 'PAID FOR' on the campaign literature as required."

Question #1

How was it paid for and who paid for it?

Answer #1

This was an in-kind donation by Carl Selfe (In-kind paperwork attached – Palm Cards identified as Trifolds 4-color Flyer). These Palm Cards/Trifolds have been exhausted and are no longer in use. Additionally, "Palm Cards"/Trifolds that are currently being used are not an In-kind donation and are paid for by Wooten for Congress. These do have the PAID FOR statement included (sample Palm Card/Trifolds attached).

Discrepancy Number 2

Campaign Business Card for Chuck Wooten showing his campaign WEB site, Facebook page and twitter account. The paid for cites 'The Committee to Elect Chuck Wooten'. The violation is there is no such Committee on record."

Question #2

Who paid for the card and why use a fictitious name?

Answer #2

During the campaign start-up an inexperienced volunteer helping with administrative duties ordered business cards for the campaign without approval from campaign members with the incorrect campaign name. As the campaign matured our campaign Treasurer reviewed all FEC rules and regulations for compliance. The error was discovered and those business cards were destroyed. The new business cards have all the required statements prominently displayed as required by FEC rules.

A recognized business development expert, Chuck Wooten engages extensively with industry working with cabinet-level agencies of the U.S. Government and NATO. Before founding the Corona Consulting Corporation, Chuck was the Vice President of SodexoUSA's Government Services Division. Sodexo is a $20 billion a year global corporation with operations in over 100 countries. He captured $180 million of work and directly created over 2,500 new contract jobs. Concurrently, he won $1 billion in incumbent contracts sustaining nearly 4,000 employees. Chuck's 20+ year Air Force career was replete with commendations and decorations and he attained the highest enlisted grade of Chief Master Sergeant. He was the 19th Air Force's Command Chief overseeing training, morale, and welfare of 14 unit locations and 17,000 troops. Born into an Air Force family in Columbus, Ohio, Chuck entered the Air Force and that brought him to Tucson, Arizona. He served a tour of duty at Tucson's Davis-Monthan AFB from 1981 to 1984.

Chuck holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Occupational Education with a minor in Logistics Management from Wayland Baptist University in San Antonio, Texas. He is a Life Member of the Air Force Sergeant's Association and a member of the National Rifle Association and the American Legion. Having seen the world more than once, he decided to return to Tucson to live permanently. Chuck and his wife, Lora, are very proud to call Tucson home. They have 3 grown children.
